

PRECEPTAUSTIN SITE INDEX

NOTE: THIS SITE INDEX WAS USED ON THE OLD WEBSITE AND HAS BEEN "DORMANT" FOR SEVERAL YEARS. HOWEVER, THIS PAGE WILL BE UPDATED OCCASIONALLY. IF YOU ARE LOOKING FOR SOMETHING SPECIFIC BE SURE TO SEARCH PRECEPTAUSTIN.ORG USING THE GOOGLE SEARCH BOX ON RIGHT SIDE OF EACH PAGE.

I realize that with well over 20,000 pages of material (with some individual HTML pages having the equivalent of 50 type-written pages or more of material) this site is voluminous and can be difficult to use and navigate. The site has evolved over about 20 years and is revised and added to almost daily (See Recently Updated Pages).

IS THERE AN APP?

No, but there is what I call a "Pseudo App" for quick access to preceptaustin resources. Click for instructions on how to make an icon for your iphone or ipad to allow quick access to the site and to the major resource subdivisions. Sorry, there is no "real" App as it is too costly.

HOW DO YOU SEARCH PRECEPTAUSTIN?

Since I can't always remember the articles I've written over the past 20 years, my go-to method is to use the "Search Site with Google" feature—not the search box at the top of the page. The most helpful tool is the Google-powered search box located at the top right of every page.

HOW DO I USE THE GOOGLE SEARCH ON PRECEPTAUSTIN?

This is my typical approach throughout the day. When I need information about a term or topic, I simply type it into the Google search bar. If there's a relevant article about the subject (for example, "rest"), it usually appears as the top search result, sometimes even accompanied by an AI-generated summary. However, searching for specific Bible verses isn't usually effective. For that purpose, I recommend using the "Verse by Verse" tab described below.

HOW DO I FIND COMMENTS ON SPECIFIC BIBLE VERSES?

In the ribbon (menu bar) across the top of each page locate the tab VERSE BY VERSE. If you are seeking commentary on a specific VERSE, the easiest way to find comments is as follows:

1. Click the Verse by Verse tab at top of each page.
2. Select book of the Bible from the list.
3. Let's say you would like a comment on Romans 1:4. Under the list of verses on Romans you will find Romans 1:1-4. Click that link.
4. This will take you to a page that has all the verses from Romans chapter 1 at the top of the page. Click Romans 1:4 and you are there.
5. Alternatively you could click (and consider bookmarking) Verse by Verse Commentary on the Entire New Testament where you will find links to each of the 7,957 verses. Note that this page only has the NT. To find verses on the OT you must go through steps 1-4.

In general, the commentary on each verse follows this pattern:

1. Full Verse – The entire verse is displayed.
2. Alternate Translations – Other Bible translations are often listed below.
3. Cross References – Sourced from the Treasury of Scripture Knowledge. Hovering over the references displays the full verse.

4. Chapter Resources Link – A link to resources for the entire chapter, such as: Hebrews 3 Resources

5. Related Passages – Sometimes included beneath the chapter resources.

6. Verse Title – A short summary or heading for the verse.

7. Verse Commentary – Comments on the verse, typically broken down phrase by phrase.

8. Greek Word Links – Many verses include links to original Greek words.

9. Greek Word Definitions – Often follows the commentary, providing more detailed explanations.

10. Additional Resources – A variety of materials may follow, such as illustrations, devotionals, and explanatory notes relevant to the verse.

HOW CAN I VIEW SCRIPTURE POPUPS IN ANOTHER TRANSLATION?

Select Preferred Translation - On the right side of each page you can select the Bible version you prefer to display the Scripture popups and that version will be applied to pop ups on every page on the website.

HOW CAN I READ THIS SITE IN ANOTHER LANGUAGE?

Select Language - On the right side of each page is the Google translation drop down which allows you to choose from 104 languages currently available. Be aware that Google translate is not geared to theological words, phrases and concepts, so the translation may not be entirely accurate. If you encounter any translations that are overtly erroneous please send me an email. Note that if you select a language on one page, you will see that language on every page of the website. One other feature to note is that if you hold your pointer over a translated section, you will see the original English translation in the popup.

WHAT DOES THE "+" SIGN (or "-note") MEAN FOLLOWING A VERSE?

A "plus sign" next to a Scripture indicates that it links to a commentary on that specific passage. For example, if you click on the "+" next to Luke 1:1+ you will go to the commentary on that verse. I am currently in the process of replacing the "-note" designation with a "+" sign, but please be aware that some verses may still have the "-note" for now.

HOW DO I FIND COLLECTIONS OF RESOURCES ON ALL 66 BOOKS?

On the ribbon or menu at the top of every page find COMMENTARIES. Click for a list of all 66 Books of the Bible and then simply click on the Book you would like to study. All 66 Books have 100's of resources including sermons, commentaries, devotionals, illustrations, etc. to help you study that Book. Obviously I have not read every resource but have attempted to list resources that are conservative and trustworthy. Alternatively you can access the resources on the 66 Books by using the drop down menu under the COLLECTIONS OF COMMENTARIES & SERMONS located on the right side of each page.

HOW CAN YOU HELP MAINTAIN PRECEPTAUSTIN AND KEEP IT FUNCTIONAL AND USEFUL?

If you come across a broken link or a typo, please help by reporting it! At the top of every page, you'll find a CONTACT US link on the far right of the menu bar. Use this to send an email with the following details:

■ For broken links:

1. Copy the URL of the PreceptAustin page where you found the bad link.
2. Copy the broken link itself.

■ For typos:

1. Copy the URL of the page with the typo.
2. Include the text containing the error (and a brief note if needed).

Since I maintain this website on my own, I rely on your reports to help keep everything working smoothly.

Some have kindly offered monetary donations, but thanks to God's provision, financial support isn't needed. The greatest gift you can offer is your prayers. If you feel led by the Spirit, please pray specifically for everyone who uses this site worldwide, that they may "grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To Him be the glory both now and to the day of eternity. Amen." (2 Peter 3:18+). I am confident God hears this prayer (1 John 5:14-15+), and I believe your prayers will store up treasures in heaven (Matthew 6:20+) where you will meet those men and women who you have been faithfully praying for! Thank you for co-laboring with me for the Lord's work! May God's grace, mercy, and peace be multiplied to you by His Spirit, through our Great High Priest Jesus Christ. Amen.

A Note About the Future:

I occasionally get questions about the future of PreceptAustin. I'm 79 this year (2025). My oldest son, Joel—an elder and teacher at his church—has agreed to continue the website after me.

This might allow you to read an extended section you are interested in but does take some work to find. Again if page does not show full text, try refreshing the page which often allows the page to be viewed. Note the preview only gives 2 pages at a time.

When you accentuate the positive, this enables elimination of the negative. For example in Romans 13:14+ we see this dynamic where Paul commands us to "put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh in regard to its lusts." Note the same pattern in Galatians 5:16+ where he commands us to "walk by the Spirit, and you will not carry out the desire of the flesh."

Light After Darkness

Perhaps you are going through dark times, even as I have been for many months, with still no end in sight. May your mind be renewed and the joy of your salvation be restored as you ponder Spurgeon's query: "Why should we dread to descend into the dark shaft of affliction, if it leads us to the gold mine of bright spiritual experience? Why should we cry out if the sun of our prosperity goes down, and yet in the darkness of our adversity we are better able to count the starry promises with which the Faithful God has been pleased to gem the sky? Many of His promises are written in 'invisible ink,' which we cannot read till the fire of trouble brings out the characters."

Lowell Johnson sermons - Several years ago (pre-COVID), brother Johnson emailed me and asked if I would post his messages on preceptaustin? After looking over several of them, I realized his sermons were solid, simple, applicational and could be an aid to pastors and teachers, so I proceeded to get his transcripts to post. It was in that fateful year of 2020 that brother Johnson contracted COVID from which he never recovered. My prayer (which I know would be his) is that these messages will be a blessing to pastors and teachers around the globe. That said, here are links to many of his sermons preached over the years. #### Maranatha - In Depth Word Study

- A Maranatha Mindset One scholar has noted that in the 260 chapters in the NT, there are 318 references to the Second Coming of Christ which means that about 1 of every 30 verses refers to the return of the Bridegroom (Mt 25:6+, Jn 3:29+, cf Rev 19:7+)! It is also notable that for every prophecy describing Jesus' First Coming, there are eight which look forward to His Second Coming! Surely the Spirit desires to stir up in the Bride (Christ's Body, the Church - Eph 1:22-23+, 2Co 11:2+) a "Maranatha Mindset" which causes us to long for our Beloved, much like Solomon's bride who cried out "Hurry, my beloved!" (Song 8:14+)!

A Spirit Filled Church

It was the middle of winter and the electricity had been knocked out by an ice storm. As we listened to our battery-powered radio the announcer said, "The following churches will be closed due to lack of power." What a provocative statement! What would the announcer say about many American churches today? They probably wouldn't be closed for lack of activity, but lack of power is another matter!
