THIS VOLUME IS Respectfully Dedicated TO W. H. CONLEY, ESQ., AND DR. J. T. McLAUGHLIN,

To whom the author is deeply indebted for sympathy and pecuniary aid in the prosecution and publication of the work.*

The divine assurances (as e.g. Prov. 11:25; 19:17; Matt. 5:7; Isa. 32:8; Matt. 10:42, etc.) of an ultimate repayment given by God Himself, indicates THE COGNIZANCE OF ONE abundantly able to fulfil His promises. May an ample realization of His faithfulness be their happy experience. Faith in the same "blessed Hope," in the same Theocratic Kingdom, influenced them to give their needed assistance, and, therefore, it is but proper for me to express, in this form, the desire and prayer, that the mighty Theocratic King—whom they thus honored—may honor them in His Coming Kingdom.

THE AUTHOR.

22. PROP. 22.—John the Baptist, Jesus, and the disciples employed the phrases “Kingdom of Heaven,” “Kingdom of God,” etc., in accordance with the usage of the Jews
23. PROP. 23.—There must be some substantial reason why the phrases “Kingdom of God,” etc., were thus adopted
24. PROP. 24.—The Kingdom is offered to an elect nation, viz., the Jewish nation
25. PROP. 25.—The Theocracy was an earnest, introductory, or initiatory form of this Kingdom
26. PROP. 26.—The Theocracy thus instituted would have been permanently established if the people, in their national capacity, had been faithful in obedience
27. PROP. 27.—The demand of the nation for an earthly king was a virtual abandonment of the Theocratic Kingdom by the nation
28. PROP. 28.—God makes the Jewish king subordinate to His own Theocracy
29. PROP. 29.—This Theocracy, or Kingdom, is exclusively given to the natural descendants of Abraham, in their corporate capacity

32. PROP. 32.—This Theocratic Kingdom, thus incorporated with the Davidic, is removed when the Davidic is overthrown
33. PROP. 33.—The prophets, some even before the captivity, foreseeing the overthrow of the Kingdom, both foretell its downfall and its final restoration
34. PROP. 34.—The prophets describe this restored Kingdom, its extension, glory, etc., without distinguishing between the First and Second Advents
35. PROP. 35.—The prophets describe but one Kingdom
36. PROP. 36.—The prophets, with one voice, describe this one Kingdom, thus restored, in terms expressive of the most glorious additions
37. PROP. 37.—The Kingdom thus predicted and promised was not in existence when the forerunner of Jesus appeared
38. PROP. 38.—John the Baptist preached that this Kingdom, predicted by the prophets, was “nigh at hand”
39. PROP. 39.—John the Baptist was not ignorant of the Kingdom that he preached

41. PROP. 41.—The Kingdom was not established under John’s ministry
42. PROP. 42.—Jesus Christ in His early ministry preached that the Kingdom was “nigh at hand”
43. PROP. 43.—The disciples sent forth by Jesus to preach this Kingdom were not ignorant of the meaning to be attached to the Kingdom
44. PROP. 44.—The preaching of the Kingdom, being in accordance with that of the predicted Kingdom, raised no controversy between the Jews and Jesus, or between the Jews and His disciples and apostles
45. PROP. 45.—The phrases “Kingdom of Heaven,” “Kingdom of God,” “Kingdom of Christ,” etc., denote the same Kingdom
46. PROP. 46.—The Kingdom anticipated by the Jews at the First Advent is based on the Abrahamic and Davidic covenants
47. PROP. 47.—The Jews had the strongest possible assurances given to them that the Kingdom based on these covenants would be realized
48. PROP. 48.—The Kingdom being based on the covenants, the covenants must be carefully examined, and \(PROP. 4\) the literal language of the same must be maintained
49. PROP. 49.—The covenants being, in Revelation, the foundation of the Kingdom, must first be received and appreciated
50. PROP. 50.—This Kingdom will be the outgrowth of the renewed Abrahamic covenant, under which renewal we live

52. PROP. 52.—The promises pertaining to the Kingdom, as given in the covenants, will be strictly fulfilled
53. PROP. 53.—The genealogies of our Lord form an important link in the comprehension of the Kingdom
54. PROP. 54.—The preaching of the Kingdom by John, Jesus, and the disciples, was confined to the Jewish nation
55. PROP. 55.—It was necessary that Jesus and His disciples should, at first, preach the Kingdom as nigh to the Jewish nation

59. PROP. 59.—This Kingdom of God offered to the Jewish elect nation, lest the purpose of God fail, is to be given to others who are adopted
60. PROP. 60.—This Kingdom of God is given, not to nations, but to one nation
61. PROP. 61.—The Kingdom which by promise exclusively belonged to the Jewish nation, the rightful seed of Abraham, was now to be given to an engrafted people
62. PROP. 62.—This people, to whom the Kingdom is to be given, gathered out of the nations, becomes the elect nation
63. PROP. 63.—The present elect, to whom the Kingdom will be given, is the continuation of the previous election chiefly in another engrafted people
64. PROP. 64.—The Kingdom being given to the elect only, any adoption into that elect portion must be revealed by express Divine Revelation
65. PROP. 65.—Before this Kingdom can be given to this elect people, they must first be gathered out
66. PROP. 66.—The Kingdom that was nigh at one time (viz., at the First Advent) to the Jewish nation is now removed to the close of its tribulation, and of the times of the Gentiles
67. PROP. 67.—The Kingdom could not, therefore, have been set up at that time, viz., at the First Advent
68. PROP. 68.—This Kingdom is then essentially a Jewish Kingdom
69. PROP. 69.—The death of Jesus did not remove the notion entertained by the disciples and apostles concerning the Kingdom
70. PROP. 70.—The apostles, after Christ's ascension, did not preach, either to Jews or Gentiles, that the Kingdom was established
71. PROP. 71.—The language of the apostles confirmed the Jews in their Messianic hopes of the Kingdom
72. PROP. 72.—The doctrine of the Kingdom, as preached by the apostles, was received by the early Church
73. PROP. 73.—The doctrine of the Kingdom preached by the apostles and elders raised up no controversy with the Jews
74. PROP. 74.—The belief in the speedy Advent of Christ, entertained both by the apostles and the churches under them, indicates what Kingdom was believed in and taught by the first Christians

76. PROP. 76.—The doctrine of the Kingdom was changed under the Gnostic and Alexandrian influence
77. PROP. 77.—The doctrine of the Kingdom, as held by the early Church, was finally almost exterminated under the teaching and power of the Papacy
78. PROP. 78.—The early Church doctrine was revived after the Reformation
79. PROP. 79.—The Kingdom of God, promised by covenant and prophets, is to be distinguished from the general and universal sovereignty of God
80. PROP. 80.—This Kingdom of covenant, promise, and prediction is to be distinguished from the sovereignty which Jesus exercises in virtue of His Divine nature
81. PROP. 81.—This Kingdom, as covenanted, belongs to Jesus, as "the Son of Man"
82. PROP. 82.—This Kingdom is a complete restoration, in the person of the Second Adam or Man, of the dominion lost by the First Adam or Man
83. PROP. 83.—This Kingdom is given to "the Son of Man" by God, the Father
84. PROP. 84.—As this Kingdom is specially given to "the Son of Man" as the result of His obedience, sufferings, and death, it must be something different from His Divine nature, or from "piety," "religion," "God's reign in the heart," etc.
85. PROP. 85.—Neither Abraham nor his engrafted seed have as yet inherited the Kingdom; hence the Kingdom must be something different from "piety," "religion," "God's reign in the heart," etc.
86. PROP. 86.—The object or design of this dispensation is to gather out these elect to whom, as heirs with Abraham and his seed Christ, this Kingdom is to be given
87. PROP. 87.—The postponement of the Kingdom is the key to the understanding of the meaning of this dispensation
88. PROP. 88.—The Church is then a preparatory stage for this Kingdom
89. PROP. 89.—Christ, in view of this future Kingdom, sustains a peculiar relationship to the Church
90. PROP. 90.—Members of the Church who are faithful are promised this Kingdom
91. PROP. 91.—The Kingdom of God is not the Jewish Church
92. PROP. 92.—This Kingdom is not what some call, "the Gospel Kingdom"
93. PROP. 93.—The covenanted Kingdom is not the Christian Church
94. PROP. 94.—The overlooking of the postponement of this Kingdom is a fundamental mistake and fruitful source of error in many systems of Theology
95. PROP. 95.—If the Church is the Kingdom, then the terms "Church" and "Kingdom" should be synonymous
96. PROP. 96.—The differences visible in the Church are evidences that it is not the predicted Kingdom of the Messiah
97. PROP. 97.—The various forms of Church government indicate that the Church is not the promised Kingdom

98. PROP. 98.—That the Church was not the Kingdom promised to David's Son was the belief of the early Church
99. PROP. 99.—The opinion that the Church is the predicted Kingdom of the Christ was of later origin than the first or second century
100. PROP. 100.—The visible Church is not the predicted Kingdom of Jesus Christ
101. PROP. 101.—The invisible Church is not the covenanted Kingdom of Christ
102. PROP. 102.—Neither the visible nor invisible Church is the covenanted Kingdom

104. PROP. 104.—The Christian Church is not denoted by the predicted Kingdom of the prophets

106. PROP. 106.—Our doctrine of the Kingdom sustained by the temptation of Christ
107. PROPOSITION 107.—The passages referring to heaven in connection with the saints, do not conflict with, but confirm, our doctrine of the Kingdom
108. PROP. 108.—The formula, "Kingdom of heaven," connected with the parables, confirms our doctrine of the Kingdom
109. PROP. 109.—An examination of the passages of Scripture, supposed to teach the Church-Kingdom theory, will confirm our doctrine of the Kingdom
110. PROP. 110.—The passage most relied on to prove the Church-Kingdom theory, utterly disproves it
111. PROP. 111.—The Kingdom being identified with the elect Jewish nation, it cannot be established without the restoration of that nation
112. PROP. 112.—The Kingdom, if established as predicted, demands the national restoration of the Jews to their own land
113. PROP. 113.—The connection of this Kingdom with Jewish restoration necessitates the realization of their predicted repentance and conversion
114. PROP. 114.—This Kingdom being identified with the elect Jewish nation, its establishment at the restoration embraces the supremacy of the nation over the nations of the earth
115. PROP. 115.—The Kingdom is not established without a period of violence and war
116. PROP. 116.—This Kingdom is a visible, external one, here on the earth, taking the place of earthly Kingdoms
117. PROP. 117.—The Kingdom of God re-established, will form a divinely appointed, and visibly manifested, Theocracy
118. PROP. 118.—This view of the Kingdom is most forcibly sustained by the figure of the Barren Woman
119. PROP. 119.—The Kingdom of God is represented, in the Millennial descriptions, as restoring all the forfeited blessings
120. PROP. 120.—This Kingdom, with its Millennial blessings, can only be introduced through the power of God in Christ Jesus
121. PROP. 121.—This Kingdom, of necessity, requires a Pre-Millennial Personal Advent of Jesus, "the Christ"
122. PROP. 122.—As "Son of Man," David's Son, Jesus inherits David's throne and kingdom, and also the land of Palestine
123. PROP. 123.—The Pre-Millennial Advent and accompanying Kingdom are united with the destruction of Antichrist
124. PROP. 124.—This Kingdom is delayed several thousand years, to raise up a nation or people capable of sustaining it
125. PROP. 125.—The Kingdom to be inherited by these gathered saints requires their resurrection from the dead
126. PROP. 126.—In confirmation of our position, the Old Testament clearly teaches a Pre-Millennial resurrection of the saints
127. PROP. 127.—In support of our view, the Apocalypse unmistakably teaches a Pre-Millennial resurrection of the saints
128. PROP. 128.—The language of the Gospels and Epistles is in strict accord with the requirements of a Pre-Mill. resurrection
129. PROP. 129.—The Jewish view of a Pre-Mill. resurrection, requisite for the introduction of the Messianic Kingdom, is fully sustained by the grammatical sense of the New Testament
130. PROP. 130.—This Kingdom is also preceded by a translation of living saints
131. PROP. 131.—This Kingdom embraces the visible reign of Jesus, the Christ, here on earth

141. PROP. 141.—This Kingdom necessarily united with the perpetuity of the earth
142. PROP. 142.—The Kingdom being related to the earth (extending over it), and involving the resurrection of the saints (in order to inherit it), is sustained by the promise to the saints of inheriting the earth

177. PROP. 177.—This doctrine of the Kingdom will not be received in faith by the Church, as a body
